3.0 SCOPE OF WORK

The Department of Social Services vision is Strong Families – South Dakota's Foundation and Our Future. The purpose of the Division of Child Protection Services is to assure children's safety, permanency and well-being. The goal of Child Protection Services is to maintain children's safety in their homes and when not possible, children may need either a temporary or permanent alternative family setting.

When parental rights are terminated, one of the permanency options available for children is adoption. Adoption is defined as the process in which children who will not be raised by their birth parents become permanent legal members of an adoptive family. The Department of Social Services must ensure families who make a permanent commitment to a child in the custody of the Department of Social Services through adoption have supports and services to meet the ongoing needs of the child to ensure a successful adoption. Families, who have adopted through private agencies, independent and international adoptions, and other states, may also need supports and services to ensure a successful adoption. The offeror selected for this contract must demonstrate adoption competencies in the services they provide to both children and adoptive families.

Post adoption services must include therapy and support services to meet the specific needs of adopted children and their families. Service options should include assessment services such as psychiatric evaluation and consultation, psychological evaluations, and social assessments. Therapy options must include individual, family, multifamily and group therapy depending on the needs of each situation. Other support services such as educational opportunities, parenting classes, support groups, and travel reimbursement for families to access specialized services and specialized respite care must also be explored to meet the particular needs of adopted children and their families.

In addition to the direct services the offeror will provide, the offeror must have a good understanding of external services that could benefit adoptive families and assist families in accessing those services. If a child has Medicaid coverage, services covered by Medicaid should be the first option if appropriate for adopted children and their families.

The offeror will provide post adoption services on a statewide basis so offeror must be knowledgeable of services available in all parts of the state and develop expertise of which services would best meet the needs of adoptive families. Technology can be used to provide services in the more rural areas.

The offeror will develop and implement a plan for mental health providers to access the National Training Initiative on Adoption Competency. The offeror will advertise the availability of the training to mental health service providers statewide and track those who complete the training. The provider will then become part of a adoption competent network of mental health service providers that adoptive families can be referred to.

Since the offeror will have specialized knowledge and skill in the areas of adoption competency, the offeror may be asked to provide services on a case by case basis to families that have yet to legalize an adoption to provide placement stability and to provide a recommendation on whether an adoption should finalize.

3.1 Post Adoption Services

Offeror must provide information regarding the following areas:

Provider is held to the same standard of care in guarding State Proprietary Information as it applies to its own confidential or proprietary information and materials of a similar nature, and no less than holding State Proprietary Information in the strictest confidence. Provider shall protect confidentiality of the State's information from the time of receipt to the time that such information is either returned to the State or destroyed to the extent that it cannot be recalled or reproduced. Provider acknowledges that the State and its agencies are public entities and thus are bound by South Dakota open meetings and open records laws. It is therefore not a breach of this Agreement for the State to take any action that the State reasonably believes is necessary to comply with the South Dakota open records or open meetings laws.
